(per The Hon'ble The Chief Justice Sri Devinder Gupta)

There is hardly any ground to entertain this appeal which records certain disputed facts and facts about the contractual obligations of the parties and the fact that a cheque for Rs.4,16,807/- was handed over to the learned counsel for the appellant, receipt of which was to be without prejudice to the rights of the appellant to work out its remedies in appropriate forum. With any such like order passed in writ petition, there is hardly any ground to interfere in appeal. Appeal is dismissed.
